

History Fair Detectives Investigative Report

Your Mission: Search for suspects and evidence at the Chicago History Museum Potential History Fair topics ideas (suspects) have been spotted at the Chicago History Museum at North Ave & Clark Street. They were spotted on the second floor at “Chicago: Crossroads of America” and “Facing Freedom” on the first floor.

Instructions: Visit at least two sections of the exhibitions and note potential topics that interest you, describe two pieces of evidence (primary sources) that the museum displayed for that topic, and explain how they relate to the key words of the current NHD theme.

I investigated the section of the Chicago: City at the Crossroads exhibition (check) <input type="checkbox"/> City on the Make, <input type="checkbox"/> City in Crisis, <input type="checkbox"/> Sweet Home Chicago, <input type="checkbox"/> Second to None, <input type="checkbox"/> My Kind of Town
Suspect: POTENTIAL TOPIC (S)	Description of two pieces of primary source evidence used:	Explain how it relates to the current NHD theme

I investigated the section of the FACING FREEDOM exhibition <input type="checkbox"/> Workers Rights, <input type="checkbox"/> Armed Conflict, <input type="checkbox"/> Race & Citizenship, <input type="checkbox"/> Public Protest
Suspect: POTENTIAL TOPIC (S)	Description of two pieces of primary source evidence used:	Explain how it relates to the current NHD theme

Student Name: _____

Period: _____ Teachers Initials _____