BOOKS, ARTICLES, PRINTING

We have an extensive collection of books related to Chicago history and provide access to a number of relevant databases, such as Chicago Tribune Historical. Students may use our books and databases within the library. Public computers are available on the 1st and 2nd floors of the library. Printers and copiers are on the 2nd floor; credit can be purchased with cash or credit cards.

ARCHIVES

The Illinois Regional Archives Depository (IRAD) is a repository of selected governmental records for Chicago and Cook County from the late 1800s to the early 1900s. The collection includes: birth, death, and marriage certificates; Chicago Police Film Censorship Board records; and Chicago Police Homicide Records up to 1930.

IRAD is located on the Lower Level of the Ronald Williams Library. IRAD is open M-F from 9 am to 4 pm. Call (773) 442-4506 for more information.

GETTING HELP

Librarians are happy to meet with individuals or classes working on History Fair projects. Use the contact information below to make an appointment to visit with a reference librarian.
